

PACIFIC RIM WINE COMPETITION

EST 1985

BEST OF CLASS – DESSERT WINE 2003 GALLEANO WINERY – LUCCA PORT

Winning Wine commentary from the judges of the 2022 Pacific Rim Wine Competition:

*“This wine is very good...long flavors, and quite fresh, lots of fruit. I can see this with a Rib eye steak and some Cambozola cheese”– Wilfred Wong
– Buyer – Wine.com*

*“This is an outstanding wine. Caramel with notes of blackberry and plum, even a touch of cassis liquor, polished finish, well-balanced, with great craftsmanship.” – Jane Hallahan-Valentin -
Winemaker*

“That wine is so good...even better than vintage ports that I’ve had. Galleano Winery has done a beautiful job with that wine...that wine should sell at whatever price they want to command!” Charles Mara – Winemaker – Mara Wines

*“This is an amazing wine!! 19 years old and so vibrant and with a lot of energy to it. With notes of cocoa, leather, and then when you taste it...it stays on your palate forever!! Great wine!” – Chris Braun
– Importer - Advinture*

*“Full-bodied port with notes of Chocolate, and a long finish. Amazing wine!” – Veronica Castro –
Wine Buyer – Hi-Time Cellars*