

PACIFIC RIM WINE COMPETITION

EST 1985

BEST OF CLASS – ROSÉ
2021 RODNEY STRONG – ROSÉ OF PINOT NOIR, SONOMA COAST, CALIFORNIA

Winning Wine commentary from the judges of the 2022 Pacific Rim Wine Competition:

*“Very lively, very bright, very fresh...I’ve had this rose in other vintages in the past, I am not surprised how well it did in this competition, it’s a serious and beautiful wine” – Wilfred Wong – Buyer – Wine.com

*“A classic rosé, floral with gentle notes of red fruit, a simple yet elegant rose” – Jane Hallahan-Valentin – Winemaker

*“This is nice wine, with a salmon pink color and a knockout rose!” Charles Mara – Winemaker – Mara Wines

*“This is an interesting wine because when you look at it, you think it might be coming from France. As an importer of French wines, I was very surprised to learn that its Californian, great quality and a great wine, drink it on a warm day!” – Chris Braun – Importer - Advinture

*“Very floral nose, dry, crisp. Soft and a very clean finish” – Veronica Castro – Wine Buyer – Hi-Time Cellars