2018 SAINT HILAIRE – BLANQUETTE DE LMOUX – LIMOUX, FRANCE

Winning Wine commentary from the judges of the 2022 Pacific Rim Wine Competition:

*“Fresh, Ripe, well balanced, clean exhilarating, quite nice!” – Wilfred Wong – Buyer – Wine.com

*“This wine has an attractive sur-lie-esque notes on the nose. The wine has beautiful melon and yellow Gravenstein apples. The palate is delightful with a subtle finish reminiscent of baking spices.” – Jane Hallahan-Valentin – Winemaker

*“Stunning wine, the acidity level is lovely with apple notes and just enough fruitiness to offset the real dryness. For the price, this wine is a homerun!” – Charles Mara – Winemaker – Mara Wines
